THE ATTRACTIVE TRIO AT LASER HAIR ASSOCIATES OF ROCKLAND IN PEARL RIVER SAY "HAIR TODAY, GONE TOMORROW"

Laser Hair Associates of Rockland has the answer for those of you who want to remove unwanted hair from your body. That just about includes everybody. Co-owners Lori Giachetti, Christine Liscio and Kristine Santoro of Laser Hair Associates of Rockland are busier than ever, as people are clamoring for their services. The answer could not be kept secret for long as people talk about these discreet, professional, educated "mommies" and their GentleLASE Laser System. Here is an example of "three mommies" wanting a career or business which was flexible and close to home and family. The trio are specialists in a treatment process that addresses hair growth on bikini areas, underarm, lip, chin, eyebrows, full face, chest and stomach and full back. Surprisingly enough, it is during the fall and winter months, pre-swimsuit weather, that the hair removal process is most prolific.

Chris, Lori and Kristine got fed up with their own hair removal experience and decided to come to the rescue of thousands of other women just like them. They often were victims of unprofessional, uneducated purveyors of pain using outdated technology from the 80's. They failed to deliver what they promised. It takes years of clinical training and hands on training in laser safety certification combined with a knowledge of regulatory requirements that makes Laser Hair Associates stand out from the crowd and deliver a fast, relatively painless and efficient hair removal process. Laser hair removal is all that they do.

Rivertown Magazine sat down with Lori, Christine and Kristine to discuss what separates Laser Hair Associates from the rest of the pack. Lori said: "Technology in this particular field is always advancing and we make sure that our staff keeps up with the state-of-art equipment needed to perform professional hair removal." Kristine added: "We never forget our customers and their needs, that's why our repeat business is so good. Our customers become our best friends because we are known to be discreet and welcoming to anybody who enters our shop." Christine summed up the story of their success: "We are a dedicated team of professionals who participate in many community activities. We created a comfortable environment for our clients where we perform safe, effective treatments with long lasting results." All three of them are committed to safely, affordably and permanently removing your unwanted hair.

"They have transformed my life," said a happy customer about to depart for her honeymoon in Hawaii. "Remember their slogan, I'm here today but my plane leaves tomorrow." To this reporter it sounded like something I've heard before, what was it? "I'm hair today-but what was it again?"
